The following is the legend to Attachment 1 which is a sketch of the island of Losinj:

1. Galjola lighthouse, which operates on a cycle of one-half second on, and three seconds off.
2. The Ocer bridge which connects Losinj island with Cres island.
3. The Neretvina lighthouse.
4. The Trstenik island lighthouse whose beam is visible from the town of Mali Losinj.
5. Seven two-story buildings which are nearing completion are located two kilometers north of Tovar. These buildings will be used as barracks and local military headquarters.
6. Six small barracks, located at the foot of the mountain in Tovar, where 500 soldiers and sailors are housed. These barracks are an old fort which is equipped with captured Italian artillery.
7. A warning light which flashes red toward the sea at six second intervals and which is continuously green on the land side.
8. The Mortar lighthouse at the port entrance. Port guards are stationed at this lighthouse.
9. The Susak lighthouse which has a continuous white warning light and also a flashing red light. The lighthouse is guarded by twenty sailors.
